No. 5, s. 1987

SEVENTH CONGRESS OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN LIBRARIANS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators

1. The Seventh Congress of Southeast Asian Librarians (CONSAL VII) will be held at the Philippine International Convention Center, Manila from February 15 to 21, 1987 under the joint auspices of the National Library and the Philippine Library Association, Inc.

2. Librarians and information specialists from Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, and the Philippines will participate in the Congress.

3. To afford librarians in the secondary and elementary schools the opportunity to broaden their perspective and to interact with their counterparts from the Southeast Asian countries, attendance to the Congress on official time of one or more qualified participants from each school is allowed.

4. After the Congress, participants are required to submit to their respective heads a complete report on their participation and a plan of action for implementation in their respective libraries.

5. It is further requested that the organizers submit to this Office a report and an evaluation of the Congress.

6. A registration fee of P250 as well as travel and accommodation may be charged from local, school, division or regional funds, subject to availability and the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

7. It is desired that this Memorandum be given the widest publicity possible.
