SUMMER LINGUISTIC INSTITUTE

TO: The Director of Public Schools;
The Director of Private Schools;
The Director of Vocational Education;
The Director, Institute of National Languages; and
The Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities;

JAN 21 1975

1. A Summer Linguistic Institute will be held at the Philippine Normal College on April 14 to May 10, 1975 under the joint sponsorship of the Linguistic Society of the Philippines and the Department of Education and Culture with the cooperation of the FPC-Ateneo Consortium for a Ph.D. in Linguistics.

2. The Institute aims to bring to Filipino language educators the most recent scholarship in (1) the sociology of bilingual education (2) language and nationalism (3) language policy and language planning, and (4) psycholinguistics. Filipino and international scholars will compose the instructional staff. The visiting faculty who will be brought to the Philippines with the assistance of the Ford Foundation, will be composed of distinguished international scholars of bilingualism (Dr. J. Fishman, Yeshiva University), psychology of language acquisition (Dr. Norman Segalowitz, McGill University), and language problems in Southeast Asia (Dr. Richard Noss, Ford Foundation, Bangkok). The Linguistic Society will arrange for qualified participants to earn graduate credit at this Institute provided they fulfill all academic and other obligations.

3. A fee of P100 for each participant, with an additional P50 for attendance at a special workshop on bilingual education will be charged. Students who intend to earn credits will be charge corresponding tuition and other fees.

4. Teachers, supervisors, researchers, and administrators of programs in Filipino and English are encouraged to attend this Institute. Expenses incident for attendance at this Institute may be charged against local funds, subject to availability, and the usual accounting and auditing regulations.

5. All inquiries relative to the Institute should be addressed to: LINGUISTIC SOCIETY OF THE PHILIPPINES, c/o PHILIPPINE NORMAL COLLEGE, MANILA.

6. It is requested that this Department Memorandum be given priority attention and dissemination.
