MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 312

AUTHORITIES ASSASSINATED IN THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR
IN MATHEMATICS, 1973

The Annals of the Society of the Philippines (ASP) will host a Regional Summer School in Combinatorial Mathematics and Group Theory, a lecture series in pure and applied mathematics and a symposium on mathematical education in Southeast Asia from April 21 to May 16, 1973 in Quezon City.

The aims of this Summer Institute are to widen the understanding of the different fields of mathematics in Southeast Asia and in particular, the Philippines; to realize the national policies on science and technology; through the establishment of a base for mathematical research and training that would serve development and educational needs in the country; and to establish the necessary links between the Philippines and the larger world mathematical community.

In view of the significance of this Summer Institute in Mathematics in the development of educational efforts of the government which is encouraging the improvement of mathematical training and research in the Philippines, all heads of schools departments in mathematics of state Universities, colleges and non-collegiate public schools are hereby authorized to send three (3) of their faculty members in mathematics or related sciences to attend the Summer Institute in Mathematics on official time with expenses for transportation, subsistence and lodging as well as summer fees, all chargeable against the appropriation of their respective offices, in accordance with the provisions of Presidential Decree No. 234 dated November 26, 1972 as implemented by General Circular No. 129, subject to the availability of funds and the usual accounting and auditing requirements and as is prescribed in the provisions of Memorandum Circular No. 98 of the Office dated August 9, 1972.

The administration of private schools, colleges and universities are encouraged and enjoined to avail of this Summer Institute, by allowing the members of their academic personnel in mathematics and related sciences to attend and participate in this Summer school on official time, as part of their academic training program.

It is understood that participants who are residing or who are stationed within the Greater Manila area shall be entitled to reasonable expenses for transportation and fueling fees only.

The participants shall submit to their respective school heads a written report on their attendance and participation in the Summer Institute, within thirty (30) days after the termination thereof.

This Circular takes effect immediately.

By authority of the President:

(SGS.) MANUEL DELA CRUZ
Executive Secretary
