DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM
No. 136, s. 1975

DESIGNATING OCTOBER AS NATIONAL SCOUTING MONTH

To the: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities

1. Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 1326, s. 1974, designating October as National Scouting Month, the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts of the Philippines have scheduled a series of activities to observe the occasion.
2. A circular setting the guidelines for the celebration has been circularized to the various councils of the two aforementioned youth organizations.
3. Considering the worthy aims and activities of the scouting movement in involving the nation's youth in useful community projects, building their character and preparing them for a role of leadership in the New Society, it is urged that active participation of all school officials, teachers, pupils and students be encouraged to insure the success of the celebration.
4. This Department Memorandum should be given wide publicity.
