and Universities

1. In connection with the celebration of Fish Conservation Week, on October 20-26 this year, conformably to Presidential Proclamation No. 176, all schools should undertake activities to awaken Fish Conservation Consciousness among the students. Such activities may be seminars, lectures, demonstrations and exhibits during the Week. Emphasis should be on the value of fish and fish products, as well as efforts made toward increasing fish production in this country.
2. In this connection, the Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources has directed fisheries officials all over the country to contact provincial supervisors and officials to carry out appropriate programs during the Week. It is therefore suggested that your office coordinate with fisheries officials in your respective regions.
3. It is requested that activities done in connection with the celebration be included in the annual report of superintendents and Regional Directors.
