DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM
No. 199, s. 1975

DRUG ABUSE REHABILITATION NETWORK, INC.
WALL CALENDAR

To the: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors Chiefs, Staff Services and Heads of Units

1. In Department Memorandum No. 126, s. 1975, the Drug Abuse Rehabilitation Network, Inc. (DARN) was given authority by the Department of Education and Culture to conduct a nationwide promotional and fund-raising campaign in schools, colleges and universities, pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 1432 dated May 19, 1975.
2. Part of DARN's nationwide effort in the fight against drug abuse is the publication of informational materials highlighting the ill effects of drug addiction and underscoring ways and means of avoiding and combatting this social problem.
3. In line with this informational thrust, DARN is preparing a 1976 wall calendar for distribution and sale to schools, teachers, and students. The calendar, measuring 15" X 24", is titled: "DON'T GET DRAGGED INTO DRUGS" and features in full color drug addicts in their wretched condition. As a dissuasive device, it will include pictorial information on how to avoid and combat drug addiction. With its format, the visual portion of this calendar easily lends itself to being converted into a colorful and impact-full poster.
4. In view of the informative and educational merits of this calendar, this Office encourages all teachers, parents, and students to buy copies of this calendar, the display of which in schools and homes, will be an effective deterrent for the young and will constitute a signal contribution to the nationwide effort to curb the ill-effect of drugs.
