DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM
No. 143, s. 1976

CROSS-CULTURAL ASPECTS OF EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

To: Bureau Directors,
Regional Directors,
Chiefs of Services and Heads of Units,
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities,
Schools Superintendents

1. The East-West Culture Learning Institute of the East-West Center, Honolulu, Hawaii, has announced a "Cultural Aspects of Educational Leadership Program" scheduled from February 16 to May 16, 1977.
2. The Program includes a discussion of the following: (1) The Cultural Foundation of Education, (2) Educational Innovations in a Cross-Cultural Perspective, and (3) The Role of America or Other Outside Culture in Societies in Transition. Activities include four seminar sessions, research, small group discussions, writing, visits to interesting cultural spots and institutions in Hawaii, a 3-day field study trip to other Hawaiian Islands scheduled at the middle of the program, and finally a 10-day field study trip to the U.S. mainland, Alaska, and certain West Coast cities. The trip will enable the participants to observe more about the process of planning and policy making in culturally relevant educational programs.
3. Fifteen candidates will be selected from countries in Asia and the Pacific and from the U.S. Candidates must be (1) highly interested in educational policy making and planning, (2) have a good command of English, (3) have graduate degree in education, social sciences, or humanities, (4) able to communicate in English, and (5) able to carry out research reports.

4. Inclosed is an application form. Applicants must submit a copy of their curriculum vitae and a brief research proposal along with their application, duly accomplished, not later than July 15, 1976 to the:

Philippine-American Educational Foundation
Teodorica Apartments
1148 Roxas Blvd., Manila

Inquiries regarding the Program may be addressed to the above-stated agency.

5. Awards are of 3 types as follows:

- a. Fully-funded awards. There is a limited number of such awards in which all costs are assumed by the Center. The East-West Center provides round-trip transportation; $351/month for food and incidentals; housing in the dormitory/hostel; and health insurance.
- b. Cooperatively-funded awards. The East-West Center provides a portion of the costs and the participant's institution or government provides a portion. The EWC provides $351/month for food and incidentals; housing in the dormitory/hostel; and health insurance. The individual and/or sponsoring institution provides all transportation costs.
- c. Externally-funded awards. These awards would be for applicants whose institutions are able to bear all costs. The applicant and/or sponsoring institution would pay round-trip transportation and $567/month which covers costs for the entire program.

Applicants or nominees for an award should indicate on their application whether they would like to be considered on the basis of (a) fully-funded awards only (b) cooperatively-funded awards as well or, (c) for all of the three funding options.

6. It is desired that this Department Memorandum be given wide publicity among school officials.
