DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM
No. 114, s. 1977

GUIDELINES GOVERNING REQUESTS FOR NATIONALIZATION
OF LOCALLY-FUNDED PUBLIC SECONDARY SCHOOLS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Chiefs of Services and Heads of Units
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities
Schools Superintendents

1. School officials are hereby informed of the following criteria that will be observed in the evaluation of petitions or requests for nationalization of secondary schools supported by the provincial, city or municipal government, excluding barangay high schools:

- a. The high school is located in a province, city or municipality classified as "C" or "D" as regards income.
- b. The high school is located in a community where there is a high population density of persons belonging to the high school age bracket.
- c. The high school is anticipated to assume a significant role in relation to local and regional development plans.
- d. There is no secondary vocational/technical school in the area.
- e. Enrolments in surrounding elementary schools in the service area of the high school assure the viability of the school.
- f. The curriculum of the high school is oriented towards economic productivity of the community which it serves.
- g. The high school has a minimum enrolment of 300 students.

2. It is desired that, henceforth, all requests for nationalization be supported by papers or documents relative to the criteria indicated.
