1977 FISH CONSERVATION WEEK CELEBRATION

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities
Schools Superintendents

1. In accordance with Proclamation No. 176, dated October 21, 1963, Fish Conservation Week will be observed on October 17-23, 1977.
2. The Week can be celebrated with appropriate activities, either in or outside the classroom. Below are suggested activities for the occasion:
 - a. Integrating the teaching of fishery in the school subjects particularly in Science, Social Studies, Home-making Arts, Communication Arts and Mathematics.
 - b. Setting up an exhibit of pictures or actual fish and other marine products as well as fishing gears in classrooms or in a strategic place in the school.
 - c. Visiting and conducting lecture-tours of fishponds, fish markets, fishing villages, and fish projects.
 - d. Conducting literary-musical programs depicting conservation of fish and other marine products.
3. Parents and other lay members of the community should be invited to observe and listen to, as well as participate in the activities scheduled by the school during the celebration of the Week.
4. It is requested that this announcement be given wide publicity in the division.
