PRACTICAL ARTS WORKSHOP AND TEACHING INSTITUTES

Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Chiefs of Services and Heads of Units
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities
Schools Superintendents
Heads of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities

The Central Luzon State University, through its Curriculum Development Center, is hereby authorized to conduct a workshop-seminar and a Practical Arts Teaching Institute for Developmental High Schools and other tryout schools under the Textbook Development Project.

This activity shall be a continuation and shall be in support of the materials development project being undertaken by the DEED through the Curriculum Development Centers (CDCs) established for the purpose. It shall serve not only as a forum for exchanging and updating practical arts teaching competencies, but also as a means for development of teaching concepts to be incorporated in the development/enrichment of curriculum guides, teaching guides, support materials, and textbooks in the specific areas of agricultural arts, craft arts, and home economics as part of the Curriculum Research Textbook Development Project.

Dates	Venue	Participants
October 16-22, 1977 (Practical Arts Workshop)	CLSU, Nueva Ecija	Heads of the tryout schools and one DEED regional subject supervisor (Any of the three areas on practical arts)
October 16-29, 1977 (Teaching Institute)	CLSU, Nueva Ecija	Practical arts teacher delegate representing one of three practical arts areas from each of designated tryout schools (listed in Inclosure No. 1).

- a. Training reference shall be the curriculum and teaching guides prepared by CLSU-CDC. The frame of reference shall be Department Order No. 20, s. 1978 for Practical Arts. Activities shall aim at the effective utilization and layout of instructional materials.
  - b. Each seminar/workshop shall have not more than sixty-five participants.
  - c. The principal/head of the tryout schools shall nominate to the CDC-CLSU one representative from any of the three areas of practical arts. (Please refer to the attached list of tryout schools.) Participation of one practical arts area supervisor from the region shall be upon the recommendation of the regional director.
  - d. Transportation expenses to and from CLSU-CDC (regular or economy fare), board and lodging allowances for the participants to the practical arts teaching institute shall be borne by the EDPITAF.
  - e. After the training, the participants shall see to the implementation of the practical arts program in their respective home institutions and the effective tryout of curriculum materials.
4. The PATI shall be funded and monitored by EDPITAF subject to its usual program management procedures, and in accordance with auditing rules and regulations.
