1. For the information and guidance of all concerned, the following guidelines on the accreditation of secondary students are hereby issued in addition to those contained in Department Memorandum No. 70, s. 1977:

- (3) Student participants who completed their high school course in the United States and were issued diplomas or certificates of graduation are eligible for admission in the first year college in the Philippines provided they qualify in the NCEE. This includes those who were accelerated during their study in the United States.
- (4) Those who completed their high school course in the United States but were not able to take the NCEE may be provisionally enrolled in first year college. However, they should take the next NCEE to qualify them for permanent admission. If they fail to present the results of the NCEE showing that they qualified for admission to college they will be denied admission the following school year.
