SCRAPBOOK CONTEST

A. Contents and Preparation

- I - The division superintendents shall organize a committee in the division for the screening of their division entries to be submitted to the regional office.
- II - The regional director in turn shall organize a committee which will screen the regional entries to be submitted to the Office of the Undersecretary for Non-Formal Education.
- III - The Undersecretary for Non-Formal Education shall in turn form a committee which shall determine the winners of the contest. Selection of winners must conform with the following guidelines:
 1. Each scrapbook, measuring 28 cms. x 30 cms. shall consist of a minimum of six (6) biographies of outstanding women who have not been recognized as such, living or deceased, in the province, city, town or barrio where the individual or participant group is a resident.
 2. Every biography submitted may illustrate outstanding work such as:
 - a. High moral values as exemplified by her own home and family life.
 - b. High degree of civic-mindedness, manifested by active participation in educational, social, religious, civic, cultural, economic and other humanitarian endeavors.
 - c. Patriotic and heroic deeds.
 - d. Achievements in her profession/vocation that have contributed not only to her own personal or her family's development and progress, but also to the development of the community where she resides.
 - e. Contribution to the effective implementation of the Administration's new thrusts towards the achievement of the goals of the New Society.
 3. The outstanding work should be supported by several or all of the following:
 - a. Anecdotes
 - b. Sketches and other art work
 - c. Photographs
 - d. Testimonials
 - e. Mementos
 - f. Clippings
 - g. Other pertinent documents

4. The contest involves individual and group effort of "in-school" and "out-of-school" youth groups in the secondary school age level.
5. Entries may be written either in English or Filipino.
6. Creative arrangement of materials in the scrapbook is left to the participants. Use of local materials in any way is encouraged.
