MEC MEMORANDUM
No. 233, s. 1978

EXTENSION OF THE FIRST YEAR OF RURAL SERVICE TO DECEMBER 31, 1978

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities
Chiefs of Services and Funds of Units
School Superintendents

1. The Paglilingkod sa Gungbang Libanan (LOI 599) is a continuing program of the government. As such the first rural service year is being extended to December 31, 1978, to give a chance to those who have not yet rendered the required service. Example of those who are being given the grace period are those who are:

- a. still sick but expected to recover and be well enough to go on rural service on or before December 1, 1978;
- b. on official missions but expected to return before December 1, 1978;
- c. newly appointed officials/employees who will be one (1) year in the government service before December 1, 1978.

2. It is desired that a list of those who have not rendered the first year 15-day rural service and are not scheduled to do so on September 1-15, 1978, be submitted to this Office not later than September 15, 1978. Indicate opposite each name the reason or reasons why the employee has not rendered or has not been scheduled to render 15-day rural service.
