1. Statistics gathered from various clinics and hospitals show that the prevalence of cancer is increasing every year.

3. In view of its most worthy effort in fighting this disease, the organization deserves the full support of all sectors of our society. For this reason, this Office reiterates its appeal to the teaching and non-teaching personnel, as well as to the parents and the students to give their generous share of donation to help in the pursuit of the Society's program of expanded services, which include the intensification of its educational campaign for cancer awareness, the maintenance of free medical services through its Cancer Divisions in the provinces.
