No. 267, s. 1979

BWVS 1980 TEACHER EDUCATION SUMMER CLASSES

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
School Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities

1. The 1980 Baguio Vacation Normal School (BVNS), Teachers Camp, Baguio City will operate from April 14 to May 24.

2. For the information and guidance of all concerned, listed hereunder are the programs on the graduate and undergraduate levels that will be offered:

- a. Master of Arts in Education with major in Educational Management (School Administration and Supervision), Educational Media, Adult and Community Education, Guidance and Counseling, Communication Arts (English or Filipino), Social Studies Education, Science Education, Mathematics Education, Music Education, Functional Literacy, Special Education, Home Economics and Volunteer Management.
- b. Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) with fields of concentration in Pre-Elementary Education, School Health Education, Social Studies Education, Home Economics and Physical Education.
- c. Seminar/Leadership courses which will entitle the participants to a certificate (if taken as non-credit), or which may be credited in terms of units as electives at the graduate level or towards a field of concentration. These are two-to-three week courses intended to provide in-service training with relevance to the current major thrusts in the educational system for teachers and school officials in the different parts of our country. The regional offices should send at least one participant to each seminar course with travel and school expenses chargeable against local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing requirements.

- d. Courses on Functional Literacy of Ethnic Minorities, a consortium between the NRC and the Summer Institute of Linguistics, which will entitle the participants to a certificate (if taken as non-credit) or which may be credited in terms of units as electives on the graduate level or towards a field of concentration.
- e. Special courses (undergraduate) in Music Education, Art Education, Physical Education or any field of concentration offered at the graduate level.

The subject offerings listed in Enclosure No. 2 for each of the programs are subject to change depending on the priority needs of graduating students, the availability of qualified instructors, and the number of students who will enroll in a class to warrant its organization.

3. School officials, classroom teachers and other employees from government schools, upon recommendation of their superintendents, may take special undergraduate, graduate or seminar/leadership courses at the Baguio Vacation Normal School. Government school personnel may be allowed traveling expenses and/or per diem chargeable against local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing regulations.

4. Teachers, school officials and other employees not in the government service who desire to enroll in the courses offered in the BVNS, should be recommended by their respective offices or institutions. Enclosure No. 1 gives the general requirements and other pertinent information for enrollment in vacation classes.

5. To facilitate the smooth operation of these forthcoming vacation classes, teacher-students who plan to enroll at the BVNS this summer are requested to accomplish the attached form (Enclosure No. 3) for advanced registration. This is to be sent to the National Research and Development Centre for Teacher Education, Ministry of Education and Culture, Arroyo St., Manila.
