Presidents, State Colleges and Universities

1. Inclosed is Proclamation No. 1932 of the President of the Philippines authorizing the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. to conduct a national educational and fund campaign during the period from January to December 31, 1980.
2. The Proclamation enjoins "all citizens and residents of the Philippines, regardless of nationality or creed, to support actively and give generously of their means to The Salvation Army Social Services, Inc., so as to enable this illustrious charitable organization to pursue a more vigorous program of humanitarian activities for the benefit of Filipino children, in line with the observance of the "The International Year of the Child" in 1979 and the "Decade of the Filipino Child" from 1977 to 1987.
3. It is requested that school officials, teachers and other school personnel give thier support to this educational and fund drive and help the aforesaid organization continue its expanded program of child welfare work in the Philippines. However there shall be no compulsion or any form of coercion upon school teachers and other personnel in the solicitation of funds for the policy of this Ministry in fund campaigns no matter how meritorious, is strictly voluntary.
4. Attention is likewise invited to the manner of remitting collections. The check or money order from school divisions is drawn in favor of the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc., and transmitted to the Regional Director's office, which, in turn will consolidate the remittances as these are received, indicating in summary form the source of the remittance (school division) and the amount. These will be transmitted to Deputy Minister Hermenegildo C. Dumlao, Chairman, Educational Institutions Division, MEC, Manila.

5. Campaign fund receipts will be provided by the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. Donations or contributions made by private entities or persons to the Salvation Army's fund campaign shall be exempt from income and gift taxes constituting allowable deductions in full from the income of the donors and contributors and the same shall not be included for purposes of computing the maximum amount deductible under Section 30, paragraph (h) of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended. Moreover, the same donations and contributions shall be considered exceptions to the provisions of Section 14 of Presidential Letter of Instructions No. 828.

6. Dissemination of this Memorandum to all concerned is requested.

PROCLAMATION NO. 1932

AUTHORIZING THE SALVATION ARMY SOCIAL SERVICES, INC.
TO CONDUCT A NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL AND FUND CAMPAIGN
DURING THE PERIOD FROM JANUARY 1 TO DECEMBER 31, 1980

WHEREAS, the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. is a world-wide organization engaged in massive humanitarian activities throughout the world;

WHEREAS, the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. has been operating in the Philippines for almost half a century, earnestly serving the Filipino people, especially the poor and the under privileged;

WHEREAS, in 1979, the "International Year of the Child," the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. is gearing its major projects towards the uplift of Filipino children, particularly in line with the observance of the "Decade of the Filipino Child" as proclaimed previously by this Administration; and

WHEREAS, the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc., in the pursuit of its expanded program of child welfare work in the Philippines, which will benefit millions of Filipino children throughout the Archipelago, will require sufficient resources with which it may be able to fund its varied projects;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FERDINAND E. MARCOS, President of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby authorize the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. to conduct a national educational and fund campaign during the period from January 1 to December 31, 1980.

"I call upon all citizens and residents of the Philippines, regardless of nationality or creed, to support actively and give generously of their means to the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc., so as to enable this illustrious charitable organization to pursue a more vigorous program of humanitarian activities for the benefit of Filipino children, in line with the observance of "The International Year of the Child" in 1979 and the "Decade of the Filipino Child" from 1977 to 1987.

All donations or contributions which may be made by private entities or persons to the Salvation Army Social Services, Inc. shall be exempt from income and gift taxes, and the same shall further be deductible in full and shall not be included for purposes of computing the maximum amount deductible under Section 30, paragraph (h) of the National Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Republic of the Philippines to be affixed.

Done in the City of Manila, this 19th day of December in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.
