1. The Philippine Historical Association, in cooperation with the Ministry of Education and Culture, announces its annual seminar which will be held at the Pius Center Conference Hall on December 10-11, 1981. The theme for the seminar will be "Education for Nationhood from a Historical Perspective".

2. In view of the laudable objectives of this seminar, it is desired that all those concerned be encouraged to attend. A registration fee of ₱50 will be charged from each participant to cover two snacks, handouts and other incidental expenses. Participants from the public schools may attend on official time only. Delegates from the private schools may make their own arrangements.

3. For further details on the seminar, please communicate with:

The Executive Director
Philippine Historical Association
