MECS MEMORANDUM
No. 192, s. 1982

COTTON RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE EIGHTIES
AND BEYOND: PLANS AND PROGRAMS

To: Regional Directors
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators Concerned

1. The Cotton and Research Development Institute, Mariano Marcos State University, Batac, Ilocos Norte, which was established through Presidential Decree No. 1432 on June 10, 1978 has developed a material entitled "Cotton Research and Development in the Eighties and Beyond: Plans and Programs." It has also printed a brochure giving information on its establishment, areas of operation, functions, activities, and advisory board. The brochure is entitled "Cotton Research and Development Institute."
2. The "Plans and Programs" contains research and development activities aimed at generating technology for the National Cotton Development Program.
3. In line with the government's thrust for increased productivity in agriculture the material can be a useful and relevant source of information in the agricultural schools and colleges particularly in cotton production. Administrators of agricultural schools and colleges who are interested in these publications may request for some copies from the Cotton and Research Development Institute, Mariano Marcos State University, Batac, Ilocos Norte.
4. Immediate dissemination of the content of this Memorandum to superintendents and administrators concerned is desired.
