No. 168, s. 1983

TWELFTH NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHIEFS AND ASSISTANT CHIEFS
OF ELEMENTARY EDUCATION DIVISIONS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents

1. The Twelfth National Conference of Chiefs and Assistant Chiefs of Elementary Education Divisions, to be hosted by Region IX in coordination with the Bureau of Elementary Education, will be held in Zamboanga City on September 26-30, 1983. The theme of the conference is "Accountability in PRODED." Inclosed is a tentative schedule of activities for the conference.

2. It is expected that at the end of the conference the participants would have:

- a. updated their knowledge of the status of the various elementary education projects particularly PRODED (e.g. NESC, ERP, Facilities, Research, Technical Assistance, etc.);
- b. defined the accountability of school officials on the:
  - (1) implementation of the new curriculum
  - (2) continuing staff development program
  - (3) production and utilization of instructional materials
  - (4) management of physical facilities
  - (5) expansion of special education programs.
- c. clarified the procedure in recording and reporting pupil progress;
- d. finalized guidelines for the implementation of the tryout of the Grade III Curriculum of the NESC;
- e. clarified issues and problems on elementary education.

3. The participants are Chiefs and Assistant Chiefs of Elementary Education Divisions in the Bureau of Elementary Education and in the regional offices. They are requested to bring the status report of elementary education projects in their respective divisions/offices.

4. Each participant shall be charged a registration fee of ₦350. Travel funds and the registration fee shall be chargeable against local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

5. It is desired that this Memorandum be disseminated to all concerned.
