MECS MEMORANDUM
No. 196, s. 1983

1983 POPULATION AND FAMILY PLANNING WEEK

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Cultural Agency Directors
Chiefs of Services and Heads of Units
Schools Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Heads of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators

1. Population and Family Planning Week this year will be celebrated on November 13-19, in accordance with Presidential Proclamation No. 1487 dated August 5, 1975. The theme of this year's celebration is: "Community Participation in the Population Movement."
2. Activities to celebrate the Week shall be undertaken in all levels - national, regional, division, district and school levels. Inclosed are some suggested activities that may be carried out in the different levels. Regional directors, schools superintendents and school heads are, however, given a free hand in planning and carrying out meaningful and economical activities in their respective areas of jurisdiction.
3. Considering the significance of the celebration's theme to the national development goals, it is desired that all schools lead and/or involve the community in observing the Week.
4. Schools are likewise enjoined to intensify the teaching of population education during the week and to prepare lessons which are in line with the theme of the year's celebration.
5. An account of the observance of the Week in each region/division should be included in the region's/superintendent's annual report.

6. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum and its inclosure is desired.
