MECS MEMORANDUM
No. 76, s. 1984

DRAWING OUT OF BAGUIO VACATION NORMAL SCHOOL

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators/Principals

1. With the conversion of the Baguio Vacation Normal School (BVNS) into a National Learning Center conformably to an Office Order dated February 27, 1984, all academic programs of the BVNS shall be phased out starting this summer, 1984.
2. In consideration of students who are graduating, however, BVNS will be allowed to conduct its last academic program this summer only for those who are defending their thesis. Students who are still writing this time will be allowed until summer, 1985 to complete. No further extension for BVNS program will be given beyond summer, 1985. The National Learning Center will provide year-round developmental and in-service programs for various levels and categories of school personnel, including non-teaching personnel.
3. All BVNS teacher-students who are defending their thesis this summer are advised to communicate with the Registrar, BVNS, Teachers Camp, Baguio City, regarding the schedule of their oral defense.
4. It is requested that this Memorandum be given the widest publicity for the information and guidance of all concerned.

(Sgd.) JAIME C. PAYS
