GUIDE TO GRADING OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Understanding of Spoken English

Grading

- 1 When addressed rather slowly in only simple sentences with frequent repetition and re-phrasing, understands almost everything.
- 2 When addressed at less than normal speed, in mainly simple sentences, with some re-phrasing and repetition understands almost everything.
- 3 When addressed at normal or slightly less than normal speed, with a few simplifications of expression, and occasional re-phrasing and repetition, understands almost everything.
- 4 When addressed in normal to fast English with no concessions made to the fact that he is a non-native listener, and with only very occasional re-phrasing or repetition, understands everything.
- 5 When addressed in normal to fast English with no concessions made to the fact that he is a non-native listener, and with no re-phrasing or repetition, understands everything.

Ability to Speak English

Grading

- 1 Speaks haltingly in simple sentences only, with considerable inaccuracy in pronunciation and grammar but with evidence of ability to use basic structures. With a good deal of effort on the part of the listener and some requests for repetition most of what he says is intelligible, but his range is extremely narrow.
- 2 Speaks haltingly in mainly simple sentences with considerable amount of inaccuracy in pronunciation and/or grammar. With a good deal of effort on the part of the listener and some requests for repetition he is largely intelligible, but his range is very limited.
- 3 Speaks fairly fluently, with some inaccuracy in pronunciation and some restriction in ability to handle complex structures and vocabulary. With some effort on the part of the listener he is almost fully intelligible, but his range is limited.
- 4 Approaches native-speaker competence in accuracy, clarity and range of expression. With little or no effort on the part of the listener, he is fully intelligible.
- 5 Possesses virtual native-speaker competence in accuracy, clarity, range and variety of expression. He is fully intelligible, with no effort on the part of the listener.

Understanding of Written English

Grading

- 1 Reads straightforward narrative or exposition very slowly and manages to follow only the bare outline of the piece.
- 2 Reads fairly difficult English rather slowly with extremely limited comprehension. Can follow the outline of a straightforward narrative or exposition, though misses much of the detail.
- 3 Reads fairly difficult English rather slowly, but with general comprehension. Reads straightforward narrative or exposition at reasonable speed with almost total comprehension.
- 4 Reads fairly difficult English on general subjects at normal speed.

- 5 Reads difficult English on general subjects at normal speed with near-native comprehension. Rarely needs to use a dictionary.

Ability to Write English

Grading

- 1 Makes a considerable number of errors within a very limited range of expression, but demonstrates some ability to produce simple sentences so that with very careful reading most of what he writes can be understood.
- 2 Distinctly limited range of expression with many errors. Given very careful reading, he can be almost fully understood within his limitations.
- 3 Is generally able to use complex structures but is more stilted and restricted than the native speaker, and makes some errors. With careful reading almost everything can be fully understood.
- 4 Approaches writing competence of a fully literate native speaker in accuracy, range and clarity of expression but may make very occasional errors. Without any effort on the part of the reader, he is readily understood.
- 5 Approaches writing competence of a fully literate native speaker in accuracy, range and clarity of expression, and rarely, if ever, makes errors. His writing is readily understood, without any effort on the part of the reader.
