GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE PSC DOCUMENT FOR CY 1984

Section 1. Personnel Services Cost of New Authorized Positions.

The personnel services cost of new positions which may be created by law, including those of their immediate staffs, when not provided for in the appropriations of the agencies, may be paid from any savings in the regular appropriations of their respective Ministries under B.P. Blg. 640, subject to Section 40 of R.D. No. 1177.

Section 2. Compensation of Contractual Personnel. Heads of ministries, bureaus, offices, or agencies, when authorized in their respective appropriations in B.P. Blg. 640 and this Letter of Implementation, may hire consultants, experts and other contractual personnel to perform specific vital activities or services which can not be provided by the regular staff of the agency, limited to such period when their services are reasonably required and to activities that shall have a definite expected output. Such contractual personnel may be paid compensation, inclusive of fees, honoraria, per dieme and allowances not exceeding 120% of the minimum salary of an equivalent position in the National Position Classification and Compensation Plans, except as may be authorized by the Minister of the Budget in the following instances: a) when the consultant or expert is an acknowledged authority in his field of specialization; and b) when the consultant or expert is hired to perform a specific activity or service that requires technical skill and expertise which local labor force cannot provide, or if such expertise is available, the supply is limited: PROVIDED, That in no case shall such compensation exceed the salary of his immediate superior, except as may otherwise be approved. PROVIDED, FURTHER, That contractual services whether rendered while stationed abroad or in the Philippines, shall not be credited nor the compensation received for the period be used as basis for computation of gratuity benefits for retirement purposes or for the computation of all leave benefits, the provisions of Section 12(e) of C.A. No. 186, as amended, and other laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 3. Compensation of Contractual Personnel Stationed Abroad. Compensation of contractual personnel who are stationed abroad shall be paid in Philippine pesos or its equivalent in foreign currency computed on the basis of the prevailing exchange rates established by the Central Bank of the Philippines. The rates of compensation for such contractual personnel shall be determined by the Minister of the Budget on a case-to-case basis, but in no case shall it exceed 20% over the rates of equivalent positions in the foreign service prescribed under Letter of Implementation No. 180. Such contractual personnel shall be entitled to the overseas allowance authorized for the same equivalent foreign service positions under Letter of Implementation No. 63, as amended.

Section 4. Conditions for Hiring of Personnel. Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies or the Government shall observe the economy measures prescribed by LOI No. 1094 and LOI Imp. No. 146 in the hiring of personnel subject to the Civil Service Law, rules and regulations.

Section 5. Compensation of Retired Government Personnel Retired for Other Government Positions. Any retired official or employee receiving pension or annuity as a result of past services to the Government who is subsequently rehired or reappointed to any government position shall receive compensation in accordance with the following rules: a) the reappointed retiree shall, upon assumption to duty in his new office, submit a written option to receive either the compensation for the position, or the pension or annuity, and b) when the retiree elects to avail of the pension or annuity, he shall be entitled to the regular allowances attached to the present position as prescribed by law, including the difference between the salary attached to the position and the pension or annuity, but in no case shall he be entitled to receive both the salary and the pension or annuity except as may otherwise be authorized by the President. A copy of said written option shall be furnished to his former office, the Government Service Insurance System, the Office of Budget and Management, the Civil Service Commission, and the Commission on Audit.

Section 6. Restoration of Previous Salary. Any employee previously receiving a salary in the government service under a duly approved permanent appointment, who is subsequently reappointed to a position covered by the National Position Classification and Compensation Plans, by reinstatement, may be allowed to receive such previous salary rate but not exceeding the maximum of the salary range/grade allocation of the position to which he is reappointed. The difference between the actual or allowable salary of the appointee and the authorized rate appropriated for the position shall be paid from savings of personal services of the Ministry concerned upon approval of the Minister of the Budget.

Section 7. Allowable Salary for Transferees. Any employee previously receiving a salary in the government service under a duly approved permanent appointment, who subsequently transfers from an agency/ministry covered by special pay plans and reappointed to a position covered by the National Position Classification and Compensation Plans, shall be authorized the hiring rate of the salary range allocation of the position. Likewise, an employee who transfers from one ministry to another or from an agency/bureau/office to another within the same ministry under the National Position Classification and Compensation Plans shall be allowed the hiring rate of the salary range allocation of the position to which he is reappointed.

Section 8. Payment of Salary Difference. Subject to the approval of the Minister of the Budget, Ministers of the executive branch are authorized to utilize lump-sum appropriations for the purpose and/or savings from personal services of the respective ministries to pay the difference between the authorized rate for a position in the approved staffing pattern and the actual salary of an incumbent thereof in accordance with the provisions of P.D. No. 985.

Section 9. Hold-over Employees. Officials and employees occupying itemized positions in CY 1983 Plantilla of agencies which are reorganized and are still rendering services although not yet reappointed to positions in the new staffing pattern of the reorganized agency shall be allowed to continue in office until such time that the new staffing pattern shall have been implemented, but in no case shall such hold-over employment extend beyond December 31, 1964. The salaries of such hold-over employees shall be charged against appropriations for personal services of their former office, or whenever applicable, to the new agency benefitting from their services.

Section 10. Selective Merit Increase. The lump-sum appropriations provided for the different ministries, bureaus, offices and agencies of the National Government under B.P. Blg. 640 for selective merit increases of deserving officials and employees shall be implemented in accordance with Letter of Instructions No. 562, dated June 23, 1977, except as may be authorized in LOI No. 1019 dated May 12, 1980 and the rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto. PROVISON, That the lump-sum appropriations shall not be used for bonuses, longevity or across-the-board salary increases, or for purposes not based on creditable performance.

Section 11. Incentive or Service Fees. Incentives or service fees paid by the Government Service Insurance System or by private companies which are intended for employees servicing them shall be deposited with the National Treasury and shall accrue to the general fund, pursuant to Section 50 of P.D. No. 1177. Such fees shall be made available for payment of incentives to employees in accordance with rates approved by the Minister concerned and the Minister of the Budget, subject to Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177. The share that any employee may receive under this section shall not, in the aggregate, exceed 50% of his annual salary.

Section 12. Honoraria for Resource Speakers and Specialists. Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies are authorized to pay from their respective appropriations, honoraria to resource speakers, researchers, experts, and specialists who are acknowledged authorities in their fields of specialization, for services rendered at such rates as the Minister of the Budget may authorize pursuant to P.D. No. 985, unless otherwise specifically provided by law. Whenever applicable, honoraria shall be granted only in accordance with the provisions of LOI No. 565 and to the implementing regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Section 13. Honoraria For Members of Religious Orders. Priests, chaplains, preachers, minsters, nuns, and other members of religious orders who are serving in and are attending to the spiritual needs of patients, inmates and wards of hospitals, sanitaria, orphanages, penal institutions and other similar institutions of the government but who are not receiving salaries may be paid an honorarium of ₱100 each per month, with subsistence, quarters and laundry privileges whenever applicable, chargeable to the appropriations for maintenance and other operating expenses of the agency benefitting from such service.

Section 14. Convention and Seminar Fees. Officials and employees of the various ministries, bureaus, offices and other agencies of the National Government who participate in conventions, seminars and conferences of authorized organizations shall be allowed a fee of not exceeding ₱100 per day or ₱50 per half day, subject to the provisions of the Circular Letter implementing LOImp. No. 146.

Section 15. Per Diem Abroad. No per diem in excess of fifty US dollars shall be paid to any official or employee traveling outside of the Philippines, except as may be approved under Section 79, P.D. No. 1177.

Section 16. Special Counsel Allowance. Lawyer-personnel in the legal staffs of ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies of the National Government, appearing in Court as special counsel in collaboration with the Solicitor-General and/or Fiscals concerned are hereby authorized an allowance of ₱100 for each appearance, chargeable against savings in the appropriations allotted for personnel services of their respective offices, but not exceeding ₱400 a month.

Section 17. Conditions for Salary Increases. The Salary Adjustment Fund, including the appropriations for salary increases or adjustments provided for the different ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies of the National Government under B.P. Blg. 640 shall not be used for any purpose other than that for which intended, and such salary increases or adjustments as may be authorized in accordance with P.D. No. 985 and P.D. No. 1285 shall be implemented only upon direction of the President. Neither shall such appropriations or lump-sum be expended without an implementing Budget Circular or other specific authorization. Budgetary savings shall not be used to pay salary adjustments, except as may be specifically approved by the Minister of the Budget pursuant to P.D. No. 985.

Section 18. Payment of Bonuses, Incentive Pay or Other Forms of Additional Compensation. No official or employee of any ministry, bureau, office, commission, board, or agency of the National Government, including state universities and colleges, shall be granted any bonus, incentive pay, thirteenth month pay, or other forms of additional compensation from the appropriations authorized in B.P. Blg. 640 or other appropriation laws nor from income recorded as trust receipts or service fees. However, upon recommendation of the Minister of the Budget and approval of the President, savings may be used for payment of a year-end incentive bonus equivalent to not more than one month salary or wage of officials and employees as may be determined by the Minister of the Budget.

Any payment made in violation of this Section shall be a personal liability of the head of the agency or office and other officials who authorized such payment, who shall be required to refund the same, in addition to any disciplinary action that may be instituted against such erring officials under the provisions of Sections 49 and 87 of P.D. No. 1177 and the Revised Penal Code.

Section 19. Conditions for Payment of Hazard Pay. Payment of hazard pay may be allowed to employees who are actually assigned in hazardous or less hazardous areas that may be declared as such by the Minister of National Defense and to employees who are assigned in distressed or isolated stations or camps, hardship or difficult areas, mental hospitals, radiation-exposed clinics and laboratories or disease-infested areas which expose them to radiation, volcanic activity/eruption risks, great danger, contagion or peril to life, as may be determined by the Minister concerned, subject to the following conditions:

- a) In determining such areas, the Minister concerned shall consider the exposure to risk or danger, inaccessibility, distance and difficulty of travel to those places.
- b) The names of the officials or employees recommended to receive hazard pay shall be submitted to the Office of Budget and Management stating the individual positions and place of assignments, and describing the nature of the difficulty, danger or risk involved;
- c) The Office of Budget and Management shall process requests for hazard benefits in hazardous/less hazardous areas based on the certification issued by the Minister of National Defense. In distressed or isolated stations or camps, hardship or difficult areas, mental hospitals, radiation-exposed clinics and laboratories or disease-infested areas, the request should be supported by a certification of the Regional Director of the place affected describing the nature of the danger, hardship or difficulty, or peril to life involved;
- d) The period of entitlement to hazard pay shall be commensurate with the duration of the actual assignment of the employee in said hardship or difficult areas, or with the existence of such danger or peril, which shall be certified every six months by any of the officers, mentioned in paragraph (c) hereof.
- e) The period of entitlement to hazard pay shall not exceed six months unless renewed and subsequent authority is granted therefor.

Section 20. Rates of Hazardous Duty Pay. Unless otherwise provided by law or in a special provision authorized to be included in this Letter of Implementation pursuant to P.D. No. 985, the hazard pay shall not be less than ₱50 nor more than ₱150 each per month chargeable to savings from personal services of the Ministry concerned: PROVIDED, That officials and employees assigned to strife-torn or embattled areas, shall be entitled to hazardous duty pay on the basis of the classification either as hazardous or less hazardous area to which they are assigned.

The head of the ministry/agency concerned shall certify that there are available savings sufficient for the purpose for the period covered by the request. The payment of hazard pay, in all cases, shall be subject to the approval of the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management.

Section 21. Review of Hazardous Duty Pay Authorizations. Authorizations for the payment of hazardous duty pay shall be reviewed from time to time by the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management with the Minister of National Defense, Minister of Health or other authorities involved, as the case may be, and shall terminate authorizations earlier issued if conditions no longer exist or justify the continuation of hazardous duty pay.

The rates of hazardous duty pay in strife-torn and/or embattled areas shall be based on the following classification:

a. Hazardous Area. Site of armed encounters between government troops and enemy forces and/or enemy-initiated attacks, raids or ambuscades. It is also an area where enemy concentration/training camps are reported.

b. Less Hazardous Area. Area where insurgent/rebel activities are mainly non-violent such as agitation/propaganda, recruitment and expansion and to a limited extent harassment and forced solicitation of material/financial support from civilians.

Section 22. Transportation and Representation Allowances. The following officials are hereby granted monthly commutable transportation and representation allowances which shall be paid from the programmed appropriations provided for their respective offices, not exceeding the rates indicated below, which shall apply to each type of allowance;

- a. At P1,000 for Ministers;
- b. At P750 for Career Executive Service Rank I officials;
- c. At P650 for Career Executive Service Rank II officials;
- d. At P550 for Career Executive Service Rank III officials;
- e. At P475 for Career Executive Service Rank IV officials;
- f. At P400 for Career Executive Service Rank V officials; and
- g. At P325 for Chiefs of Divisions, identified as such in the Personal Services Itemization.

Other positions of equivalent rank as may be determined by the Office of Budget and Management shall likewise be entitled to the said allowances at the same rates provided herein.

The transportation allowance herein authorized shall not be granted to officials who use government motor transportation, except as may be approved by the President. Unless otherwise provided by law, no amount appropriated in this Act shall be used to pay for representation and/or transportation allowances, whether commutable or reimbursable, which exceed the rates authorized under this Section except as may be approved by the President. Previous administrative authorizations not consistent with the rates and conditions herein specified shall no longer be valid and payment shall not be allowed, unless re-authorized by the President.

Section 23. Uniform Clothing Allowance. Except as otherwise provided in B.P. Blg. 640, or as may be authorized by the President, appropriations for each Ministry, bureau or office, at such sum as may be necessary, may be used for uniform and/or clothing allowance of employees at not more than P250 each per annum. Savings may be used for this purpose where no amount is specifically appropriated therefor. The allowance herein authorized shall be used for the purchase of clothing materials of the same quality, cut and style as may be prescribed by the Minister concerned for each office or group of employees, subject to such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Commission on Audit to ensure that the highest quality of material at the lowest cost are obtained for such clothing materials: PROVIDED, That only female employees may receive such allowance, except as otherwise provided in B.P. Blg. 640 and other pertinent laws, or as may be authorized by the President.

Employees occupying positions which require the wearing of specialized uniform, such as security guards, prison guards, custom police, quarantine officers, road maintenance men, street sweepers, hospital attendants, and other employees as may be determined by the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management shall also be entitled to uniform allowance herein provided, subject to the availability of agency funds.

Section 24. Conditions for Entitlement to Quarters Allowance. Except as may be authorized by law, government officials and employees who, by virtue of their positions, are furnished free quarters or are charged only a nominal rate, in government-owned buildings, such as dormitories or living quarters in hospitals, state colleges, universities and schools, foreign posts, and elsewhere, shall forfeit entitlement to any quarters allowance. Where rented private buildings are utilized for an official's quarters, the excess of rental cost over the quarters allowance of the official shall be borne by him. Those who enjoy free quarters in government-owned or rented buildings but who are not entitled to quarters privilege shall be charged the corresponding cost of rentals therefor, including the bills for light and water consumed. Unless fixed by law or regulations, the rate of quarters allowance or rental, as the case may be, shall be determined by the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management.

Section 25. Maximum Number of Permanent Positions. Except as otherwise provided by law, the maximum number of permanent positions in a bureau, office or agency shall not exceed the number of permanent positions included in the approved staffing pattern or in the approved special budgets for the said bureau, office or agency. PROVIDED, That savings from personal services may be used (a) to create additional positions only in cases where reorganization, pursuant to law, is being implemented as part of the approved program for expansion of essential services; and (b) for positions of officials and employees who were dismissed and later reinstated under instructions of the President. The creation of such positions shall, in all cases, be subject to the prior approval of the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management and to the provisions of Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177.

Section 26. Modification of Number and Designation of Positions. The number and designation of positions in this Document may be increased or modified with the approval of the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management under the provisions of P.D. No. 1177 in order to prevent the loss of position of any incumbent due to omission of his position in this Itemization, reduction in pay or loss of position in case of employees whose salaries were previously paid from school tuition fees, hospital income, special funds which were later abolished, and other similar sources which have been incorporated into the General Fund of the National Budget, subject to the provisions of P.D. No. 925. For this purpose, the Heads of Ministries concerned are hereby authorized to use savings from personal services and/or lump-sum appropriations of their respective Ministries, subject to the provisions of Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177.

Section 27. Positions in Unauthorized Organizational Units. Unless otherwise created by law or directed by the President, no position shall be authorized in an organizational unit of any Ministry, bureau, office or agency which has been created without authority from the Presidential Commission on Reorganization and the Office of Budget and Management. The implementation of said new organizational units shall be authorized only upon recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee on Organizational Units created under LOI No. 728. Organizational Units created by administrative authorizations shall be considered as ad hoc arrangements that shall be staffed by contractual personnel, staff members on detail or by temporary personnel when authorized.

For purposes of this Section, the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management is hereby authorized to conduct a continuing review of the organizational structure of each Ministry, bureau, office or agency, and to withhold release of any fund provided for any unauthorized organizational unit which is included in BP Blg. 640.

Section 28. Changes in the Personal Services Itemization. The Itemization of Personal Services in agencies of the National Government which were reorganized subsequent to the enactment of B.P. Blg. 640 may be changed with the approval of the Minister of the Budget, Office of the Budget and Management when necessary to provide for transition in meeting qualifications and other requirements; PROVIDED, That in no case shall the annual cost of personal services after such changes exceed the programmed expenditure for personal services as specified in the National Government Budget for CY 1984.

Section 29. Filling of Vacant Positions. Consistent with Letter of Instructions No. 728, No. 828, and LOImp No. 146, all newly created and/or vacant positions in all government agencies, except those in the judiciary and Constitutional Commissions, shall be filled only upon approval of the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management, the provisions of Letter of Instructions Nos. 443 and 565 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 30. Restrictions on Lump-Sum Appropriations. Lump-sum appropriations in agencies and offices authorized in this Personal Services Itemization document shall be used only for the specific purpose for which it is authorized and for no other. Any expenditure of lump-sum appropriation for purposes other than that authorized is null and void.

Lump-sum appropriation for salaries and wages of temporary and emergency employees and laborers including skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled laborers and helpers shall not be used for payment of compensation or allowances of consultants nor shall it be used for consultancy contracts.

Section 31. Unprogramming of Positions to Effect Savings. Consistent with the provisions of LOI No. 806, LOI No. 828, LOI No. 981, LOI No. 1098 and LOImp No. 146, and other pertinent issuances prescribing economy measures in government operations, and upon recommendation of the Head of the Ministry concerned, the Minister of the Budget, Office of Budget and Management shall identify those position-items which need to be unprogrammed in order to obtain the savings in personal services required to be generated under the National Government Budget for CY 1984.

Section 32. Conflict of Provisions. In the event that a provision in the Itemization of Personal Services is found inconsistent or in conflict with those relating to the same subject matter in B.P. Blg. 640 the provisions of the latter shall prevail.

Batas Pambansa Blg. 666
(General Appropriation Act - CY 1965)
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Receipts and Income

Sec. 2. Fees, Charges and Assessments. All fees, charges, assessments, and other receipts or revenues collected by Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies in the exercise of their functions; at such rates as are now or may be approved by the Minister concerned, shall be deposited with the National Treasury and shall accrue to the General Fund pursuant to Section 50 of P.D. No. 1177 and Section 3 of D.P. Blg. 325: PROVIDED, That certain receipts may be recorded as income of a Special Fund, A Fiduciary or a Trust Fund, or a fund other than the General Fund, when authorized by law and following such rules and regulations as may be issued by the Permanent Committee created under Section 51 of P.D. No. 1177: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all revenues or income accruing to special accounts in the General Fund may be made available for expenditures subject to the Special Provisions in this Act for the agencies concerned and to Special Budgets required under Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177: AND PROVIDED, FINALLY, That whenever practicable and taking into account the cost reduction program of the government when an agency arranges with another government office for fabrication of furniture or equipment, or for computer, printing or other services, the agency rendering such services may assess the requesting agency for the cost of production and services rendered and may utilize the said proceeds subject to Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

Sec. 3. Revolving Fund. Revolving Funds shall be established and maintained in this Act only in cases where said funds are expressly created and authorized by a special or substantive law.

Receipts derived from business-type activities of Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies which are authorized by law or by the Special Provisions in this Act to be constituted into a Revolving Fund shall be separately recorded and deposited in an authorized government depository bank, except as may otherwise be determined by the Permanent Committee created under Sec. 51 of P.D. No 1177, and may be made available for operational expenses of the said activity of the agency concerned, subject to the conditions prescribed under the Special Provisions of the agency concerned and the rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the aforementioned Permanent Committee. The revolving Fund shall be considered self-perpetuating and self-liquidating and all obligations or expenditures incurred by virtue of said business type activities shall be charged against the Revolving Fund: PROVIDED, That interest earned shall accrue to and form part of the Revolving Fund to used for the same purpose for which the fund is authorized.

The Agency concerned shall submit to the Office of Budget and Management and monthly report of the income from this Fund and a Quarterly report of expenditures. In case of failure to submit said requirements, the Office of Budget and Management shall order the suspension of all transaction on this account until such time that said requirements are complied with.

Sec. 4. Trust Receipts. Receipts from non-tax sources authorized by law for specific purposes which are collected/received by a government office or agency acting as a trustee, agent or administrator, or which have been received as security for the fulfillment of an obligation, and all other collections classified by law or regulations as trust receipts shall be treated as a trust liability of the agency concerned and deposited in an authorized government depository bank or the National Treasury, as the case may be, subject to the conditions prescribed under the Special Provisions of the agency concerned and to the rules and regulations as determined by the Permanent Committee created under Section 51 of P.D. No. 1177: PROVIDED, That deposits in authorized government depository banks shall be withdrawable on the joint signatures of the authorized representatives of the agency and the Commission on Audit without the need of Special Budget or the issuance of a Cash Disbursement Ceiling: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That if the amount is deposited in a savings account, the interest shall accrue to the General Fund which shall be remitted to the National Treasury at the end of each quarter.

Sec. 5. Seminar and Conference Fees. Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies which conduct training programs approved jointly by the Office of Budget and Management and the Civil Service Commission are authorized to collect seminar and conference fees from government and private agency participants, the rates of which shall be determined in accordance with Letter of Instructions No. 565. The proceeds derived from such seminars or conferences may be deposited in an authorized government depository bank as a trust liability and shall be made available for expenditure without the need for a Cash Disbursement Ceiling to defray the costs incurred for handouts, meals and other incidental expenses, including speakers honoraria at rates prescribed pursuant to P.D. No. 565, but not for entertainment or representation expenses, withdrawable on the joint signatures of the authorized representatives of the agency concerned and the Commission on Audit: Provided, That if the income is deposited in a savings or time deposit account, the interest thereon shall accrue to the General Fund and shall be remitted to the National Treasury at the end of each quarter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no appropriations authorized in this Act shall be used to support or augment expenses of seminars or conferences for which fees are collected: AND PROVIDED, FINALLY, That any income remaining in the bank account at the end of the fiscal year shall be withdrawn and deposited with the National Treasury as income of the General Fund. The Office of Budget and Management and the Commission on Audit shall promulgate the necessary rules and regulations to implement this provision.

Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies concerned shall submit to the Office of Budget and Management a monthly report of collection and deposits and quarterly report of expenditures and financial status of its training operations, and in case of failure to submit said requirements, the Office of Budget and Management shall order the suspension of all withdrawals from the funds deposited until such time that said requirements are complied with.

Sec. 6. Sale of Products. Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies are authorized to sell products of agricultural, industrial or other projects, including official publications, and the proceeds derived therefrom shall be deposited with the National Treasury and accrue to the General Fund, pursuant to Section 50 of P.D. No. 1177, unless otherwise provided by law or authorized by Special Provision in this Act.

Sec. 7. Donations. Ministries, bureaus, offices or agencies are authorized to accept donations, contributions, grants, request or gifts, in cash or in kind from foreign governments, international agencies, private entities or individuals for purposes relevant to their functions. Cash proceeds shall be deposited with the National Treasury as a Special Account in the General Fund and shall be used or expended only in accordance with the wishes of, and purposes specified by the benefactor or donor, subject to Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177. Contributions or gifts in kind intended for specified beneficiaries, but which are perishable in nature and would require storage or distribution expenditures of more than forty percent of their current market value may be sold at public auction and the proceeds derived therefrom shall be deposited in like manner as if they were in cash, and shall be used or expended for the same purpose, subject to the conditions imposed by the donor and Section 40 of P.D. No. 1177. All such receipts, including equipment and other fixed assets shall be recorded in the books of the government and shall be subject to pertinent accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

The agency concerned shall submit to the Office of Budget and Management and to the Commission on Audit quarterly/monthly report of the proceeds from such donations, contributions, grants, bequests or gifts, in cash or in kind, including a quarterly report of expenditures or disbursements thereof.

Sec. 8. Performance Bonds and Deposits. Performance bonds and deposits filed or posted by private persons or entities with agencies of the government shall be deposited with an authorized government depository bank as trust liabilities and under the name of the agency concerned.

Upon faithful performance of the undertaking or termination of the obligation for which the bond or deposit was required any amount due shall be returned to the filing party and the office or agency concerned, withdrawable on the joint signatures of the authorized representatives of the agency and the Commission on Audit, without the need for Cash Disbursement Ceiling! PROVIDED, That any interest accruing on deposit accounts and any forfeited amount shall be recorded as income of the General Fund and shall be remitted to the National Treasury at the end of each quarter. This provision shall apply to bonds posted in cash, such as bidders bonds, guaranty bonds, bail bonds, judicial deposits for the benefit of clients, cash under litigation deposited in court or quasi-judicial bodies and other refundable and judicial bonds, and all bonds and deposits required by law rules and regulations to be posted to ensure the faithful performance of an activity or undertaking.

Authorized Expenditures.

a. Sec. 9. Reorganization of the Executive Branch. The President may adjust, realign or modify key budgetary inclusions and appropriations authorized in this Act as may be necessary to implement the reorganization of Ministries and Agencies of the government as approved by law or pursuant to Presidential Decree No. 1416 granting continuing authority to the President of the Philippines to reorganize the administrative structure of the National Government.

Sec. 10. Use of Savings. Ministries, bureaus, offices and agencies are hereby authorized, subject to LOEm. No. 29 and P.D. No. 1177, to use savings realized from appropriations actually released for the settlement of the following obligations and activities incurred during the current year:

- a. Payment of hazard duty pay and of retirement gratuity or separation pay of employees who are entitled thereto under existing law or are laid off as a faculat of the elimination of their positions under authorized procedures;
- b. Payment of the share of the National Government in the salaries of officials and employees in newly created and/or reclassified local government units where no appropriation has been provided in this Act or where the authorized appropriation is not sufficient to cover the salaries of the said officials and employees;
- c. Provision for social and economic opportunities and such other activities intended for the welfare of the cultural minorities as may be undertaken by the Presidential Assistant on National Minorities;
- d. Organization, activation, training and operation of military units for the purpose of implementing agency development projects in areas adversely affected by peace and order problems, including salaries and allowances of all military personnel assigned thereto;
- e. Payment of obligations of the National Government or any of its Ministries or agencies arising from perfected and valid contracts, or international agreements;
- f. Purchase or repair of equipment and furniture, including motor vehicles, to replace those lost or destroyed through theft or robbery, accident, fire typhoon and other natural calamities, and to replace unserviceable and condemned items;
- g. Expansion of essential facilities and services, including the opening of additional classes in elementary, secondary and vocational schools, as may be approved by the President;
- h. Funding of foreign exchange and peso requirements of foreign-assisted projects;
- i. Foreign-exchange differential arising from peso devaluation;
- j. Augmentation of operational expenses.
