1. The Minister of Education, Culture and Sports hereby announces the Integrated Scholarship Program for 1987-1988.

2. Short-term courses will be offered on the elementary and secondary levels. Each region is allotted two slots for each short-term course. It is understood in this regard that all nomination papers for short-term courses must be approved by the regional office and received by the MECS Scholarship Committee two (2) months before the start of each course.

3. The Flagship approach will be utilized in conducting the short-term courses. This means that short-term courses will be offered by institutions with expertise on the subject area. Hence, the following institutions which have manifested expertise in specific areas may be tapped as follows:

For Luzon:

De La Salle University	- Guidance
Philippine Normal College	- Sibika at Kultura
University of the Philippines	- Home Economics and
Philippine Women's University	Livelihood Education
Institute for Science and Mathematics Education	- Science/Math
Maryknoll College	- Special Education

For Visayas:

University of the Philippines in Cebu

For Mindanao:

West Mindanao State University

4. For the masteral or doctoral programs only one slot for each of the thirteen (13) regions shall be allowed. The regions shall undertake a screening process at their level and recommend only the best qualified nominee for this program.
