- (1) Students Rights and Responsibilities and Academic Freedom
- (2) Academic Policies and Standards Affecting Students
- (3) Legal Aspects of Student Administration

- (4) Organization of Student Personnel Administration
- (5) Evaluation of Program for Student Development

3. The seminars are designed to attain the following objectives:

- a. To make the youth understand the role of growth and development of people and communities.
- b. To certify the institutions' influence in the acquisition and nurturing of youths' qualities, skills, potentials and attitudes.
- c. To imbue youth leaders with the theoretical framework of a worthwhile activity for regional and national development through self-reliant communities.
- d. To provide a working knowledge in the administration and management of student affairs services.
- e. To clarify academic policies and local issues affecting students in the schools.
- f. To develop the concept of student development in the administration of student services.

4. The Congress is open to all college students specifically student leaders involved in leadership training projects in their respective schools. They should, however, be recommended by their respective school heads. The advising seminar is open to all faculty members who are involved in student organization development.

5. All colleges and universities are urged to participate. Heads of colleges and universities are authorized to recommend not more than ten (10) selected students and at least five (5) faculty advisers. Deadline for the submission of application of student and faculty delegates will be on November 13 for provincial delegates and November 20 for Metro Manila delegates.

6. A fifty-one and forty-two members fee of Five Hundred Pesos (P500.00), which covers room and board, insurance, minimal materials, medical fee, and other minimal cost may be incurred in connection with attendance or travel, shall be borne by the college or university represented in the seminars. All expenses of the participant from the government schools may be charged against local funds, subject to the availability and the usual accounting and auditing rules. If no funds are available, participants may attend the activity on a partial basis. They may also be granted service credit for their attendance in the Congress. As stated in paragraph 3, DECS Memorandum No. 11, s. 1982, a pass and receipt of one collection and disbursements shall be strictly observed by the sponsoring institution/agency.

7. Certificates of Attendance signed by the College Work Committee Chairman, the President, General Secretary of the YMCA of Manila, and the Executive of the Congress and Advisers Seminar will be given to each participant.

8. Student and faculty representatives shall submit reports on their participation which shall include a summary of the discussions taken up and the resolutions/recommendations arrived at.
