DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 208, s. 1987

1987 NATIONAL BOOK WEEK

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
School Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Heads of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators

1. National Book Week will be observed this year on November 24-30. The theme is "Ang Aklat ay Ganyang Tugay sa Pag-unlad."
2. The heads of schools, in coordination with librarians and teachers, are called upon to commemorate the occasion with fitting activities and to call the attention of pupils/students and the whole community to the importance of books, not only to our schooling, but to our lives as well.
3. Suggested activities for the occasion are:
 - a. programs with good speakers to give impetus to the occasion;
 - b. "open house" exhibits inviting the parents and the community so the public may know what the schools, especially the library, are offering to their children emphasizing the role of books to education;
 - c. book exhibits, quiz contests, reading activities, puppet shows, and other contests about books and also showing of films or videos on books;
 - d. Holding of "Share Your Books Program" or "Book Shower." Request donation of usable books and other library materials from parents and other members of the community; and
 - e. visits to different libraries. Teachers and pupils/students should be encouraged to get new experience from the world of books.
4. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum to all concerned is desired.

(SGD.) LOURDES F. QUISUMBING
Secretary
