DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 24, s. 1998

NATIONAL TEACHERS WORKSHOP-CONFERENCE
FOR A CLEAN AND HONEST MAY 1998 ELECTION

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents
Private Elementary and Secondary School Principals

1. The National Foundation For Teachers Development, Inc. (NFTDI) will sponsor the National Teachers' Workshop/Conference for a Clean and Honest May 1998 Election on February 19, 20, and 21, at the Imus Sports Complex, Imus, Cavite.
2. The three-day live-in activity will be the Foundation's initial project to develop among our public and private school teachers deepening awareness of their civic role whether as members of the Comelec-deputized Board of Election Inspectors or as active participants in the organized campaign for a meaningful electoral exercise.
3. This activity is designed to provide the participants an overview of the elections in the situation in the education sector and to the national situation and to enable them to devise strategies, programs and plans to promote, monitor and protect teachers' welfare and safety during the elections.
4. Participants in the workshop-conference are classroom teachers from both public and private schools, preferably officers of faculty clubs and teachers' organizations in the district, divisional and regional levels and except for Metro Manila, shall be apportioned to 10 per region.
5. Attendance in this conference shall be considered on official business. School heads are therefore advised to make arrangement for substitution work to avoid disruption of affected classes.
6. Though board and lodging will be provided free to all the 250 participants, other expenses per participant (such as transportation fare and a minimal registration fee of P500.00 shall be chargeable against local school board or institutional funds subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and procedures.
7. Wide and immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
