DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 95, s. 1998

THE RETURN OF THE WAX MUSEUM

To: Bureau/Regional Directors
Directors of Services/Centers and Heads of Units
Schools Superintendents
Private Elementary and Secondary School Principals

1. The Children of the World Foundation in cooperation with Mary Lindbert International will bring to Manila the Wax Museum of Fishermans Wharf, San Francisco, California to be exhibited at the Festival Mall of Filinvest Corporate City from July 15 to December 31, 1998.
2. The Centerpiece of the Exhibit is a specially created Philippine Centennial module featuring our Filipino heroes who figured prominently on our fight for independence in a unique true-to-life wax figure.
3. The exhibit will feature the world's great personalities in history, world politics, sports, religion, fairytales, fantasies, arts and sciences, chamber of horror and music in life-size wax.
4. The exhibit desires to afford every Filipino another chance to see this superb collection from the Wax Museum of San Francisco.
5. In view of the educational significance of this event, this office encourages all school officials, researchers, teachers, professors and students to visit and view the Wax Museum.
6. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum to all concerned is desired.
