DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 126, s. 1998

LIST OF SCHOOLS TRANSFERRED TO DECS

To: Undersecretaries
Assistant Secretaries
Bureau Directors
Directors of Services/Centers and Heads of Units
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents
Divisional Leader School Principals (Secondary)
Vocational High School Principals

1. Inclosed is a list of one hundred sixty three (163) schools which will be transferred from TESDA to DECS including qualified teachers and personnel, their proportionate share of the budget and other assets and liabilities by March 31, 1998.
2. As per agreement, there shall be no phasing-out of the secondary education program in the schools that will remain with and be administered by TESDA. However, the DECS regional directors shall be responsible for the supervision of such secondary education program to ensure compliance with prescribed educational standards. This is in recognition of the need to establish feeder secondary education programs to the post-secondary technical vocational education and training programs.
3. Likewise, there shall be no immediate phasing-out in SY 1998-1999 of the post-secondary technical vocational education and training programs of the above 163 schools transferred to DECS. However, all heads of schools shall submit for approval of their respective regional directors a phasing-out plan of such program to begin in SY 1999-2000.
4. For the information and guidance of all concerned.
