DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 334, s. 1998

SECOND NATIONAL DANCE CHOREOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents
Private Elementary and Secondary School Principals

1. The School Choreographers Association of the Philippines (SCAP) based at Far Eastern University will conduct the Second National Dance Choreography Workshop on October 12-16, 1998 at the Far Eastern University Gym with the theme "Role of Choreography in the Philippine Centennial Celebrations".
2. The seminar-workshop aims to:
  - a. provide participants with the ideas needed for creating dances relevant to the Philippine Centennial Celebrations;
  - b. present dance dramas on the lives of some of our national heroes; and
  - c. enhance awareness of significant events of our Philippine history and the role played by our national heroes.
3. Participants to this workshop are Physical Education teachers, dance teachers of public and private elementary and high schools. Heads of schools shall make the needed arrangements for teachers who may wish to attend so that there shall be no disruption of classes.
4. A registration fee of eight hundred pesos (P800.00) shall be charged each participant to cover operational expenses such as seminar kit, handouts, certificates, and honoraria for lecturers and consultants and other related expenses.
5. Travel, registration fee and other expenses incidental to the attendance on the said workshop shall be charged against available local funds subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

6. Further inquiry may be directed to: Dr. Antonio M. Bermudez, Department of Physical Education, Far Eastern University, tel. no. 735-02-33.

7. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
