2. The forum aims to facilitate the inculcation of human rights values among school children and highlight the role of parents in the promotion of children's rights. It further aims to prepare schools for the use of the HRE teaching exemplars by establishing core groups of trainers composed of parents (PTCAs) and school children (student councils) which will implement re-entry projects aimed at promoting human rights and ensuring that the teaching of human rights is reinforced at home. Part of the re-entry project is echoing significant learnings gained from the forum in their respective PTCAs and schools. Likewise, it serves as a venue for surfacing issues/concerns regarding the teaching of human rights in the classroom.
