Chairman, CHED

1. The Linguistic Society of the Philippines, the affiliate association of Association Internationale de Linguistique Appliquee (AILA) in the Philippines, is proud to announce the 12th Congress of Applied Linguistics which will be held on August 1-6, 1999 in Tokyo, Japan with the theme "The Roles of Language in the 21st Century".
2. The world's best-known applied linguists and language educators will be the paper presentors and participants at this Congress.
3. The Congress will be a means to get the latest update on applied linguistics and how they relate to current developments in language education from participating in plenary and parallel sessions; from consulting with the world's experts who are readily on hand to lend their expertise and exchange ideas with everyone; from perusal of books and other documents as book companies display their latest publications; and the like.
4. Expected to attend are language teachers and supervisors and others who might be interested in language.
5. The registration fee schedule is as follows:

	On or before May 31, 1999	After June 1, 1999
