No 232 s 2000

FIRST WORLD TELE-EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

To Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Private Elementary and Secondary Schools Principals

1 The Telecommunication Development Bureau (BDT) will be conducting the "First World Tele-Education Symposium for Developing Countries" in Manaus Brazil on June 28-29 2000

2 This symposium, which is designed specially for developing countries, will be a major event in that participants will have the opportunity to meet with experts in the fields of education/training and telecommunications, to learn from each other's experiences and to determine strategies for initiating and/or extending tele-education applications in their respective countries

3 The objectives of the symposium are the following

- a raise awareness of the potential of tele-education and the need for telecommunication and education agencies to work together in order to implement tele-education services for the benefit of the country's inhabitants
- b analyse the tele-education technologies and services that are currently available and/or that will be available in the near future both by sectors of society and by geographical region,
- c analyse the practical applications of tele-education, training vocational training, formal education and
- d exchange experiences on methodological aspects of tele-education both in its own right and as a supplement to traditional education methods

4 Participants to the symposium are senior-level officials in charge of developing and introducing new services and new tele-education applications in the relevant sectors (telecommunications and education) Fellowship applications must be submitted on the form provided for the purpose (copy enclosed) by May 15, 2000 by direct fax to Mr Jaime Herrera in Geneva Fax +41 22 730 5484 E-mail Jaime.Herrera@itu.int.
