16TH NATIONAL CONVENTION

To Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents

1 The World Council for Curriculum and Instruction (WCCI) Philippine Chapter is holding its 16th National Annual Convention with the theme "The Global Teacher Making a Difference In a Culture of Peace" on July 22, 2000 at the Holiday Inn United Nations Avenue Manila

2 The objectives of the convention are to

- a provide a venue for exchanging ideas visions issues and concerns among teachers coming from different regions, departmental levels and disciplines and to share best practices in promoting a culture of peace,
- b establish a network of collaborative initiatives with government and non-government organizations on advocating a culture of peace through quality curriculum and instruction, and
- c formulate an action plan as reflected in the WCCI Manifesto 2000 to serve as guide in translating the culture of peace in the schools and communities not only for national but global peace

3 In this connection, educators and administrators from both public and private schools are invited to share their best existing practices in promoting a culture of peace in the classroom school, etc. across disciplines such as Communication Arts, Science and Social Sciences Invited to this national convention are known speakers and practitioners on the topic. Participants from public schools will attend on official time only and may look for sponsors
