DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 372, s. 2000

KYONGJU WORLD CULTURE EXPO 2000

To: Bureau Directors
Directors of Services/Centers and Heads of Units
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Private Secondary Schools Principals

1. The Republic of Korea announces the Kyongju World Culture Expo 2000 with the theme: "The New Millennium Breath" which will be held from September 1 to November 10, 2000 at Pomun Lake Resort and Downtown, Kyongju City, Republic of Korea.

2. The Kyongju World Culture Expo 2000 aims to:

- a. display the history of particular cultures: their birth, development, decline and extinction; and
- b. display the diverse foreign cultures that have flowed into the Korean peninsula and been fused with the indigenous culture through conflict and assimilation: ancient Indian culture, Mongolian horse-riding culture, North-East Asian shamanistic culture, the Confucian, Buddhist and Taoist cultures of China, and the Southern Maritime culture.

3. In this regard, the Republic of Korea is inviting Filipino nationals (professionals, students and cultural groups) to visit Korea and witness the EXPO Festival 2000.

3. For particulars, please contact:
