DECS MEMORANDUM
No. 388, s. 2000

FIRST NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ATTENTION DEFICIT HYPERACTIVITY DISORDER (ADHD)

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents

1. A team of young professionals from Eucharistiana Center and Learning Inn, a non-government organization located in Marikina City is launching the First National Conference on Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) with the theme "Coming Together in Response to the Challenge of ADHD," to be held on October 20-21, 2000 at the Institute of Social Order, Ateneo de Manila University, Loyola Heights, Quezon City.
2. The team is composed of medical, allied health and education professionals who are concerned in the education and care of special children. They are committed to provide services that will enhance and maximize the potentials of these children and to promote community awareness and involvement in addressing their special needs.
3. The conference aims to empower regular school teachers in terms of handling ADHD children inside the classroom, in line with their vision of "The Filipino Learner in the New Millennium: Focus on the Strategic Partnership. Enclosed is the conference program.
4. The conference main speaker is Mrs. Helen Peters, a Winston Churchill Fellow and an ADHD herself, who leads an ADHD support group in England.
5. A registration fee of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (P2,500.00) will be charged for on-site participants while pre-registered participants can avail of a discounted fee of Two Thousand Two Hundred Pesos (P2,200.00). Participants from the public schools are allowed to attend on official time only.
6. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
