To: Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Private Secondary Schools Principals

1. The DECS-Scholars in Performing Arts, under Dr. Anton M. Juan, at the Philippine Women's University will have a production tour in public and private schools. The initial production tour starts in Iriga City on March 22-24, 2001.
2. The production will stage the play, "Doon Po Sa Amin", an adaption by Onofre Pagsanjan of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" with a bonus repertoire of dances and songs. The Story teaches about life in a wholistic point of view, and the reality of death as depicted by two Filipino families in the town of San Roque, Rizal. The play will run for three (3) days with matinee and gala performances.
3. The production tour aims to:
 - a) prepare the scholars in their entry to the world of the performing arts;
 - b) serve as venue towards experiencing the mounting of a major production; and
 - c) apply theories learned on all the elements of theater in the practical aspect.
4. For schools who wish to request for a performance, they may contact Mr. Manuel B. Samonte, Producer, El Rio Original, Market Site, Iriga City with tel. no. 523-55-24 (PWU Dorm) or Cell no. 09173712472 for reservation and more details of the production tour.
5. Regional, division and school officials are enjoined to encourage students, pupils and teachers to watch said play.
