GUIDELINES

ELIGIBILITY: The conference is open to pupils of public and private elementary/central schools and secondary high schools nationwide. School officials are advised to send their top students and leaders, active members of the student council, school paper and other school organizations. Aside from the leadership and academic qualifications, each student delegate must be of good moral character and must be physically fit to attend the workcamp and other strenuous activities. Each delegation should have a teacher adviser/s.

CONFERENCE FEE: The conference fee is FIVE THOUSAND PESOS (P5,000.00) per delegate inclusive of board and lodging, conference materials, tour expenses and other training expenses. Transportation expenses from point of origin to Los Baños, Laguna and back is NOT included.

ATTIRE: Delegates are required to wear formal attire during the opening and closing ceremonies. We will be having also the Santacruzán Parade, so we are advising the delegates to bring their necessary attire for this occasion. Since outdoor sports activities will be held, appropriate attire is also advised. Please bring sufficient casual sports and working clothes.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR THE CONVENTION: The delegates shall be staying at the Girl Scout of the Philippine (GSP) lodging facilities. The conference fee is inclusive of board and lodging. The food to be served will consist of breakfast, lunch, snacks in the afternoon, and supper. Packed food shall be provided for delegates during activities outside the convention site. First aid stations are located inside the convention site to assure the safety of delegates. Please bring your own sleeping bag.

TALENT VARIETY SHOW: Delegations who are interested to join the Talent Variety Show (TVS) should have a prepared individual or group presentation before hand. The CMLI JC-NEB reserves the right to screen performers before the actual presentation. Individual performers are given an allotted time of five to ten (5-10) minutes while group performers will be given an allotted time of ten to fifteen (10-15) minutes. They are required to bring their own costumes and props.

CONTESTS: The Summer Conference/Workcamp shall have the following contests: extemporaneous public speaking contest, timpalak dagliang talumpatian, on the spot essay writing contest, timpalak dagliang sanaysay, poem writing and delivery making contest (English/Filipino) and on-the-spot painting contest. Only one student per delegation is allowed to participate in each contest. Contestant for the painting should bring his or her own coloring medium. The Project Feasibility Study (PFS) and proposal making contest is a competition per school delegation.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS: It is suggested that the following provisions be brought; flashlights, medicine, mosquito repellants, matches/lighters, toiletries, and extra snacks. Delegates are required to bring their own sleeping bags and tents.

RESERVATIONS: For those who would like to experience a once in a lifetime summer this coming vacation, reservations are now open. Send the enclosed reply form as soon as possible time. You would not like to miss this opportunity of being part of the Children's Museum and Library Inc. in the 23rd Annual National Summer Conference and Workcamp in Los Banos, Laguna.

HIGHLIGHTS & ACTIVITIES

EXECUTIVE TRAINING SEMINAR (ETS): The ETS is one of the main features of this conference. This covers leadership training seminars, management by objective (MBO), key result area (KRA), stress and conflict management and project feasibility study (PFS) or proposal making. The seminar shall also include IRISE and Consensus Building. Each school delegation shall design and defend their PFS, which shall serve as basis for implementation in its school or community.

COMMISSION DISCUSSIONS: Delegates are grouped into different commissions to engage in group discussions and group dynamic sessions. Various topics related to the theme and the symposium will be discussed to enable the students from different schools and regions to learn from one another and build camaraderie.

CONTEST: During the conference, CMLI endeavors to encourage individual excellence and discover the potentials of the youth by holding various competitions. Such activities provide gifted delegates a venue for self-expression, allowing their energies to productive ends. This year's contests includes extemporaneous public speaking contest, timpalak dagliang talumpatian, essay writing contest, timpalak dagliang sanaysay, poem writing and delivery contest (English/Filipino) and on the spot poster making contest. There shall also be contests by commissions, which will be discussed by the facilitators during the conference proper. The Project Feasibility Study (PFS) and proposal making contest and defense is one of the highlights of this conference. Each school delegation is encouraged to join and create their own community and school based management programs.

TALENT VARIETY SHOW (TVS): The talent variety show participated by various school celebrates the diversity and richness of Filipino culture. Schools who wish to join the contest must prepare before hand any dance, song, poetry, theater, or musical number to be presented during the activity proper.

HIKING AND MOUNTAIN CLIMBING: There will be a hiking and mountain climbing activities to commune with nature and experience the natural beauty and grandeur of Mt. Mariang Makiling.

SYMPOSIUM: Part of these weeklong activities is the symposium, which will focus on the theme; THE YOUTH'S ROLE IN THE EFFECTIVE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE "CLEAN AIR ACT LAW". Prominent national figures and experts on the subject shall speak on issues relevant to the convention theme. Delegates are given a chance to inter-act with their guests through an open forum.

SURVIVAL TRAINING: The delegates shall be taught the fundamentals of jungle/camping survival and other indigenous practices that preserved human strength and nature.

WORKSHOPS: Several workshops shall be staged featuring renowned speakers on the topics ranging from the Arts to Community Development. Workshops for this year will include mountaineering and rappelling.

OTHER ACTIVITIES: Other activities include community immersion and development, foster parents, cook-out, survival game, sportsfest and socials. The community immersion and development gives the participants an experience of engaging in small depressed community like helping them to make their barangay clean and green and outreach activities. The survival game stresses the friendly competition, teamwork, physical fitness, and good clean fun. Delegates, competing by commissions, take part in game and athletic events and they are able to show their skills and sportsmanship in Filipino games. Sportsfest and social activities are held to foster the value of friendship and positive human relations.
