DepEd Memorandum
No. 101, s. 2002

JUN 18 2002

2002 School Opening

To : Undersecretaries
Assistant Secretaries
Heads of Bureaus/Centers/Offices
Regional Directors
Schools Division Superintendents
Public Elementary and High School Principals
Public Elementary and High School Teachers

1. The opening of classes last Monday generally proceeded in an orderly manner. This can be attributed in great part to the preparations of the teachers, principals and school administrators of their schools, the readiness and enthusiasm of the teachers, and the support and monitoring of field officials.
2. Central Office officials, regional directors, superintendents and principals were on TV and radio giving status reports, answering questions and acting on complaints. This accessibility to the media and the visibility in the field helped in assuring parents and students that their needs are being addressed. It also showed the DepEd working as one organization.
3. Efforts to reduce shortages will continue. Textbook and school furniture deliveries and school building construction and repair will proceed as scheduled. Shortcomings in textbook deliveries in particular schools are being looked into and acted on.

Congratulations and let us continue to work for the children.
