DepEd Memorandum
No. 172 s. 2003

JUN 03 2003

FINAL REPORT ON DECENTRALIZATION OF BASIC EDUCATION MANAGEMENT

To : All Regional Directors

1. The Department of Education in collaboration with the Asian Development Bank (ADB) conducted a Study on Decentralization of Basic Education Management, and came-up with a final report on the Decentralization of Basic Education Management in the Philippines last 2001.
2. The above Report is in parallel with the intention of the Governance of Basic Education Act of 2001 or R.A. 9155, which is geared towards decentralization of basic education management, focusing on the new roles and functions of the field offices, particularly the Regional, Division, and District Offices to support school-based management.
3. With the tasks of the Regional Director to review and rationalize the existing organizational structure and staffing pattern of the different organizational units in the regional, division and district offices and schools (Section 7.2 of IRR), the above-mentioned report can be used as a reference material in fulfilling the above-said tasks.
4. In this regard, we are transmitting to your office via e-mail the electronic copy of said Final Report which is in four (4) volumes, as follows: Decentralization and Organization (Volume 1); Quality Enhancement (Volume 2) Finance and Management Information System (Volume 3); and Main Report (Executive Summary). Please provide the divisions copies of said report.
5. For inquiries or further information, please refer your call to the Office of Planning Service-Project Development and Evaluation Division c/o Ms. Psyche Vetta Olayvar at telefax numbers: 633-7256 or 635-39-83.
