- Expand and improve comprehensive early childhood care and education, especially for the most vulnerable and disadvantaged children.
- Ensure that by 2015 all children, particularly girls, children in difficult circumstances and those belonging to ethnic minorities, have access to and complete free and compulsory primary education of good quality.

- Improve all aspects of the quality of education, and ensure excellence of all so that recognized and measurable learning outcomes are achieved by all, especially in literacy, numeracy and essential life skills.

WHEREAS, the link between literacy rates and socio-economic development makes it imperative for the country to eradicate illiteracy and raise the levels of literacy of its citizens as an important step towards building a Strong Republic;

WHEREAS, it is the duty of the State to support the eradication of illiteracy and the improvement of the levels of literacy of its citizens in terms of policy, resources and programs geared to literacy developments;

WHEREAS, the Literacy Coordinating Council (LCC), created in response to the Jomtien Declaration on Education for All, and composed of the Department of Education (DepEd), Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG), National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), Philippine Information Agency (PIA), Philippine Normal University (PNU), Senate, House of Representatives and Non-Government Organization (NGO) and the agencies involved in the promotion of literacy from the private and government sectors, provides overall coordination in policy formulation and program implementation of all inter-agency activities relevant to the goals of the UNLD; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GLORIA MACAPAGAL-ARROYO, President of the Republic of the Philippines, by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby declare strong state support to the United Nations Literacy Decade (2003-2012). Further, I hereby direct the Secretary of Education, with the LCC as his technical arm, to provide leadership to achieve the UNLD goals.
