4TH NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR HIGH SCHOOL ECONOMICS EDUCATORS

1. The UP School of Economics (UPSE) Student Council is hosting the 4th National Conference for High School Economics Educators (4th NCHSEE), which carries the title "The Real Deal: Breaking Free from Economics Textbooks". This conference is scheduled on April 11-12, 2005 and will be held at the UPSE Auditorium. It intends to empower the high school Economics teachers from both the public and private sectors with the latest techniques, up-to-date information and guided analysis to make the study and instruction of Economics more relevant, understandable and intuitive. Now on its fourth year, this conference has become and will continue to be a pivotal venue to improve the competence of our high school educators, enriching their knowledge in the subject matter at hand.

2. The four sessions of the Conference will discuss the following topics:
- Surviving the Fiscal Crisis
 - Understanding Population and Growth
 - Searching for the Perfect Economics Textbook
 - Innovating Economics Instruction

Among the speakers are former and current Secretaries of Socio-Economic Planning and noted economists and educators from public and private institutions.

3. The Department of Education supports this initiative of the University of the Philippines School of Economics Student Council and hereby encourages the attendance of high school Economics educators from both public and private schools. Participation fee is P2,000.00 per participant to cover conference materials and four meals; however schools sending two or more participants are entitled to a discounted rate of P1,500.00 per participant.
