DepED MEMORANDUM
No. 160. 2005

TRAINING ON THE USE OF EXISTING MAKABAYAN MULTIMEDIA MATERIALS
FOR THE IDENTIFIED STRONG REPUBLIC SCHOOL AREAS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Heads, Public Elementary and Secondary Schools

1. In line with the ongoing Strong Republic Schools (SRS) Program, the Department will conduct the 15th to 31st batches of training on the "Use of Existing Makabayan Multimedia Learning Materials" to provide equal access to quality education in mostly marginalized and underserved school age population located in the pre-identified 500 priority barangays nationwide. Enclosure No. 1 indicates the list of the participating schools, while the tentative schedule of the trainings is in Enclosure No. 2.
2. Authorized to attend are the concerned SDS, one (1) formal teacher and one (1) non-formal education facilitator from each of the priority schools, the counterpart soldier teachers (to be identified by the AFP-DND), and concerned DepED Central Office participants and Master in Information Technology Education (MITE) scholars (Enclosure No. 3). The SDS, as SRS focal person in the Division is hereby tasked to: a) serve as overall coordinator in his/her respective division; and b) identify, in coordination with the school principal, the formal and non-formal participants from the identified schools. The Workshop Program (Enclosure No. 4) is enclosed for your reference.
3. Accommodation and traveling expenses shall be covered by the program during the training period. The participants are requested to take hold of all essential papers, documents and transportation tickets (as required in the accounting and auditing rules/regulations) for reimbursement purposes of traveling expenses incurred for the activity.
4. The SRS Secretariat, c/o Madeleine P. Fedirigan, Senior Education Program Specialist, DESCO with tel. no. (02) 6320170, will coordinate the participation of all concerned units.
5. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.

FLORENCIO B. ABAD
Secretary
