Schools Division/City Superintendents

1. Relative to the Special Program in Foreign Language (Spanish), a Professional Development Course on Teaching Spanish as a Foreign Language intended for Spanish teachers shall be conducted on October 26-30, 2009 at Instituto Cervantes, Manila.
2. The training aims to capacitate the Spanish teachers on the following:
 - a. methodological approaches and how they are reflected in materials and the classroom;
 - b. diverse aspects involved in learning Spanish as a foreign language;
 - c. pedagogic tools and techniques needed for teaching Spanish as a foreign language; and
 - d. guidelines for the analysis, creation and assessment of activities for the Spanish class.
3. The participants in the training shall be the secondary school teachers from selected pilot schools nationwide that attended the training last summer at Instituto Cervantes, Manila (See Enclosure). The Universidad D Salamanca, Spain shall send two (2) of their teachers to conduct the training.
4. The participants are expected to arrive in Manila on October 25 at the PASS Dormitory, DepED Complex, Meralco Avenue, Pasig City. Lodging will be provided on October 25-31, 2009.
5. Lodging and traveling expenses of the twenty nine (29) participants shall be charged against HRTD funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations. The Embassy of Spain/Universidad D Salamanca shall provide the meals, training fees and venue. Traveling expenses incurred by the participants shall be reimbursed in Manila.
6. For more information, please contact, Ms. Rosa Ligaya C. Domingo, Senior Education Program Specialist (SEPS) and Officer-in-Charge (OIC), Staff Development Division, Bureau of Secondary Education (SDD, BSE) at tel. no.: (02) 632-7586.
7. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum to all concerned is desired.
