DEPARTMENT ORDER
No. 2 ,s. 1975

EXPANDING THE FUNCTIONS OF REGIONAL DIRECTORS TO INCLUDE
DEVELOPMENT, COORDINATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS AND PROJECTS IN THE REGIONAL LEVEL

To The Director of Public Schools,
The Director of Private Schools,
The Director of Vocational Education, and Coordinator of State Colleges & Universities:

1. In line with the Department policy of maximizing the capability of its regional offices to contribute more effectively to national as well as regional development goals and in order further to allow the exercise of initiative on the part of regional directors within the context of their role in regional development, the functions of DEC Regional Offices as now organized are hereby expanded to include the following:

- a. Develop plans, programs, projects and activities related to regional development and coordinate with other regional agencies in the region in the implementation thereof.
- b. To assume leadership in educational development planning for the region including research activities, in coordination with the heads of regional/district offices of the Bureau of Private Schools and the institutional heads of the Bureau of Vocational Education.
- c. To call upon officials and other technical personnel of the various educational institutions, public or private, and avail of their assistance in the development of programs and projects and their cooperation in the effective implementation thereof.

2. To develop a core of regional supervisors that can provide assistance in the continuing program of developing administrative, supervisory and teaching competence to division offices, schools and colleges where needed or requested.

3. To incur coordination and for the Department to exercise some degree of control on the educational development plans, projects and activities proposed to be undertaken in the regional level in relation to programs and activities of the Department, it is hereby requested that such plans and programs and the activities involved in the implementation thereof, be submitted to the Office of the Secretary for prior approval.

3. The cooperation of all officials and personnel concerned is hereby desired.
