DEPARTMENT ORDER
No. 5, s. 1977

EMERGENCY LABORERS NOW IN THE SERVICE WHO QUALIFIED
IN CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS TO BE GIVEN PREFERENCE
IN FILLING CLERICAL POSITIONS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Chiefs of Services and Heads of Units
Coordinator, State Colleges and Universities
Schools Superintendents

1. With the release of the results of the Career Service (Professional or Sub Professional) Civil Service examination last December 16, it is desired that emergency laborers (casuals) now in the service who passed the aforementioned examinations be given preference in filling clerical positions, provided they meet the other requirements of the position and that their performance is at least "Satisfactory."

2. Such preference, however, shall not apply if the position is being filled by promotion and when there are qualified honor graduates granted civil service eligibility under P.D. Nos. ~~987 and 988~~, duly certified by the Civil Service Commission, in line with the instructions given in Department Orders Nos. 39 and 58, ss. 1976.

3. Strict compliance with this Department Order is desired.

(SGD.) NARCISO ALBARRACIN
Acting Secretary of Education and Culture
