MEC O R D E R
No. 25, s. 1982

RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF PRODED-ERP TRAINORS

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Superintendents

1. The PRODED Educational Reorientation Program (ERP) requires the services of ERP trainors recruited from the ranks of master teachers, school principals and supervisors. These trainors will compose the trainors network at the regional and subregional levels of the Ministry.
2. The PRODED-ERP trainors have been carefully selected and trained at the Development Academy of the Philippines. They will be assigned on a full-time basis during the Project period from 1982-1985 to administer all PRODED training programs, mobilize and monitor the various learning-action cells and directly train the teacher-advocates.
3. While on detail with the PRODED-ERP, the teachers, principals and supervisors who have been selected as trainors shall be performing specialized functions and as such are entitled, subject to the need for their services as trainors, to the following rights and privileges:
  - a. They shall be assured continuity of service and shall continue to receive the salary corresponding to their present positions;
  - b. They shall not be subject to transfer to other stations or assignments;
  - c. They shall continue to enjoy allowance given to school officials and teachers, e.g. clothing allowance, living allowance; and
  - d. Their job experience as trainors shall be recognized as credits for salary increases, merit salary increase per MEC Order No. 28, s. 1981, and/or promotion, subject to pertinent rules and regulations.
4. Full compliance with this Order is desired.
