2. This Order reiterates the delineation of responsibility and areas of cooperation between the Bureau of Higher Education and the Bureau of Technical and Vocational Education set in DECS Order No. 36, s. 1987.

- a. The Bureau of Higher Education shall have primary responsibility for (1) all courses of study leading to the bachelor's degree; (2) all degree courses of study beyond the bachelor's level, inclusive of master's and doctoral programs; and (3) those one-, two-, and three-year courses of study with academic credit, the entire contents of which are components of baccalaureate programs, such as ladder-type curricula.
