In order to rationalize the distribution and assigned coverage of the remaining district supervisors in schools divisions, pending review and final decision on the coterminous nature of their positions, the prohibition against transfer from one district to another under DECS Order No. 110, s. 1991, is hereby suspended.
2. Effective immediately, regional directors may approve the transfer of station and assigned coverage of district supervisors upon recommendation of the division superintendents concerned, where such transfers will be in the best interest of the service.
3. A report on all approved transfers shall be submitted to the undersigned through the Personnel Division of this Office at the end of each semester.
