DECS O R D E R
No. 27, s. 1995

MODIFYING THE POLICY PROHIBITING THE COLLECTION OF CONTRIBUTIONS FROM PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENTS

To : Regional Directors and Schools Superintendents
Bureaus, Centers and Services Directors

1. The policy prohibiting the collection of contributions during the period of enrollment from pupil/students of public elementary and secondary schools is hereby modified to allow collections of authorized contributions provided these are made on a voluntary basis and are not made a requirement for admission or for clearance purposes in case of transfer of pupils/students to other schools.

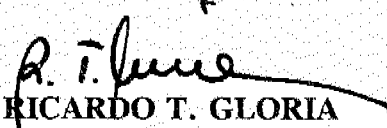

2. For SY 1995-1996 the following collections are authorized to be collected from pupils and students of public elementary and secondary schools:

- | | | |
|--|---|----------------------|
| a. Identification Fee | - | Not more than P15.00 |
| b. Boy Scouts of the Phil. | - | Not more than P20.00 |
| c. Girl Scouts of the Phil. | - | Not more than P25.00 |
| d. Phil. National Red Cross | - | Not more than P 5.00 |
| e. School Publication Fee (For High School students only) | - | Not more than P25.00 |
| f. School Organization Fee (For High School students only) | - | Not more than P25.00 |

3. Parent-Teacher Associations (PTA) or Parent-Teacher Community Associations (PTCA) are authorized to collect an annual PTA or PTCA fee in an amount to be determined by the PTA or PTCA members themselves at a meeting called for the purpose; provided such collections are made on a voluntary basis, are not required for admission or transfer purposes, and are collected by PTA/PTCA representatives themselves and not by the public school teachers. Prior to collection the following reports are required to be submitted to the school principal: (1) PTA/PTCA resolution approving the collection of PTA/PTCA fees for current school year; and, (2) report on receipts and expenditures of PTA/PTCA fees collected in the preceding school year.

4. Any violation of this Order including cases of unauthorized collections or authorized voluntary collections made a requirement for admission or transfer will be dealt with administratively.

5. For strict compliance.
